Welcome to the 2020/2021 Hogalogue. This specially created Hogalogue contains beautiful and unusual hedgehog goods. Browse through the pages and find those ideal gifts, stocking fillers or treats for yourself. You can shop with the added bonus of knowing that all profits generated from this Hogalogue go directly to supporting the work of the British Hedgehog Preservation Society (Charity number 1164542).

This year's cover picture is one of the many beautiful photos we had entered in our calendar competition. This lovely photograph was taken by Samantha Merrett-Williams and is also featured in our 2021 calendar.

If you have any clear photographs of hedgehogs you would like to send for possible use as the Hogalogue cover or for future projects, please email them to us at info@britishhedgehogs.org.uk

Books

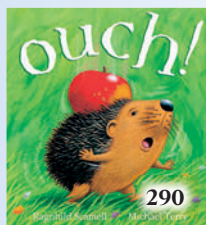

151 "Hedgehogs" by Pat Morris. An authoritative book covering everything to do with hedgehogs. 201 pages. Hardback. £14.99

324 "The Hedgehog Book" by Hugh Warwick is the latest in the compact accessible Nature Books series. The short book is all about the natural history of the hedgehog spiced up with some of the more eccentric stories that surround this wonderful animal told in Hugh's unique humorous, chatty and engaging style. This clever book will appeal to all; those who are already hedgehog fans and those who are newcomers. Packed with colour photos. 160 pages. Hardback. £9.99

290 Hedgehog is about to go to sleep when OUCH! an apple lands on her back! Will her friends be able to help her? Written by Ragnhild Scamell illustrated by Michael Terry. Age 5 - 7. 28 pages. Paperback. £6.99

271 "The Last Hedgehog" by Pam Ayres. Hedgehog fan and national treasure, Pam Ayres, turns her attentions to the plight of our prickly friends, in a less than fond farewell from the last hedgehog left on Earth. An amusingly written, but thought-provoking poem. Please note this is not a children's book. 48 pages. Hardback. £6.99

039 "A Prickly Affair - My Life with Hedgehogs" by Hugh Warwick. This delightful book tells of his funny and endearing quest to understand our deep-rooted affection for hedgehogs. 320 pages. Paperback. £9.99

289 "Northwind" is a stunning children's novel written by award winning author Bob Rogers. For a young and inexperienced hedgehog abandoned by his mother the world can be perilous enough - but when you are a rare white hedgehog - and you stand out like a midnight moon - you are going to need a whole lot of luck and some very special friends. Beautifully presented and illustrated by Rebecca Paul with a flame orange ribbon bookmark bound into the spine. 226 pages. Guide age 8-12. Hardback. £12.99

325 "While We Can't Hug" by Eoin McLaughlin and Polly Dunbar. Hedgehog and Tortoise were the best of friends. They wanted to give each other a great big hug. But they weren't allowed to touch. "Don't worry," said Owl. "There are lots of ways to show someone you love them." and even though they can't hug and they can't touch, they both know that they are loved. A gorgeous, uplifting, inspiring picture book that shows us ways to be affectionate while social distancing. Guide age 2-5. 32 pages. Paperback. £6.99
