Welcome to the 2021/2022 Hogalogue. This specially created Hogalogue contains beautiful and unusual hedgehog goods. Browse through the pages and find those ideal gifts, stocking fillers or treats for yourself. You can shop with the added bonus of knowing that all profits generated from this Hogalogue go directly to supporting the work of the British Hedgehog Preservation Society (Charity number 1164542).

This year's cover picture is one of the many beautiful photos from our calendar competition. This lovely photograph was taken by Colin Barley and is also featured in our 2022 calendar.

If you have any clear photographs of hedgehogs you would like to send for possible use as the Hogalogue cover or for future projects, please email them to us at info@britishhedgehogs.org.uk

Books

324 "The Hedgehog Book" by Hugh Warwick. This short book is all about the natural history of the hedgehog spiced up with some of the more eccentric stories that surround this wonderful animal told in Hugh's unique humorous, chatty and engaging style. This little book will appeal to both those who are already hedgehog fans and those who are newcomers. Packed with colour photos. 160 pages. Hardback. £9.99

New 347 "Little Mouse's New Friend" by Jo Parry is a touching story about meeting friends and being yourself. Hetty the Hedgehog is too shy to join in because she feels so different to them. That is, until one day when Little Mouse is in trouble and Hetty is the only one who can help! 24 pages. Guide age 3-6. Paperback. £5.99 poem. Please note this is 48 pages. Hardback. £6.99

271 "The Last Hedgehog" by Pam Ayres. Hedgehog fan and national treasure, Pam Ayres, turns her attentions to the plight of our prickly friends, in a less than fond farewell from the last hedgehog left on Earth. An amusingly written, but thought-provoking not a children's book.

290 Hedgehog is about to go to sleep when OUCH! an apple lands on her back! Will her friends be able to help her? Written by Ragnhild Scamell illustrated by Michael Terry. Age 5 - 7. 28 pages. Paperback. £6.99

151 "Hedgehogs" by Pat Morris. An authoritative book covering everything to do with hedgehogs. 201 pages. Hardback. £14.99

289 "Northwind" is a stunning children's novel written by award winning author Bob Rogers. For a young and inexperienced hedgehog abandoned by his mother the world can be perilous enough - but when you are a rare white hedgehog - and you stand out like a midnight moon - you are going to need a whole lot of luck and some very special friends. Beautifully presented and illustrated by Rebecca Paul with a flame orange ribbon bookmarker bound into the spine. 226 pages. Guide age 8-12. Hardback. £12.99

New 328 "Spikey Mike Goes to Sea" is the second book by David Percival. Spikey Mike is a little hedgehog that is always getting into trouble. After a terrible storm sweeps him to sea, he uses the things he sees floating nearby to help him to sail to safety aided by his new friend Sarah the seagull. Age 3-6. 32 pages. Paperback. £4.99

325 "While We Can't Hug" by Eoin McLaughlin and Polly Dunbar. Hedgehog and Tortoise were the best of friends. They wanted to give each other a great big hug. But they weren't allowed to touch. "Don't worry," said Owl. "There are lots of ways to show someone you love them." and even though they can't hug and they can't touch, they both know that they are loved. A gorgeous, uplifting, inspiring picture book that shows us ways to be affectionate while social distancing. Guide age 2-5. 32 pages. Paperback. £6.99
