Welcome to the 2026/2027 Hogalogue. This specially created Hogalogue contains beautiful and unusual hedgehog goods. Browse through the pages and find those ideal gifts, stocking fillers or treats for yourself. You can shop with the added bonus of knowing that all profits generated from this Hogalogue go directly to supporting the work of the British Hedgehog Preservation Society (Charity number 1164542).

This year's cover picture was taken by Michelle Howell.

If you have any clear photographs of wild, healthy hedgehogs, taken in the dark or at dusk, that you would like to send for possible use as the Hogalogue cover or for future projects, please email them to us at info@britishhedgehogs.org.uk

Books

324 "The Hedgehog Book" by Hugh Warwick. This lovely little book is all about the natural history of the hedgehog spiced up with some of the more eccentric stories that surround this wonderful animal told in Hugh's unique humorous, chatty and engaging style. This book will appeal to both those who are already hedgehog fans and those who are newcomers. Packed with colour photos. 160 pages. Hardback. £9.99

437 Our planet is criss-crossed by a network of ancient pathways reflecting the journeys of millions of animal species in search of food, water, safety and mates. But human development is blocking these vital 'ribbons of life'. Animal habitats are shrinking into isolated and unconnected patches of nature. This fascinating book by Catherine Barr and illustrated by Christiane Engel tracks the journeys of seven amazing animals from our very own hedgehog in the UK to elephants in India. Discover why they are in trouble, follow their journeys and find out how scientists and campaigners across the world are creating 'wildlife corridors' for animals on the move. Guide age 6 upwards. 37 pages. Hardback. £13.99

471 This handy little bookmark is magnetic. Fold it over the page so the magnets connect and securely saves your place. Approx. 4 x 10cm (1½" x 4"). £2.95
